CASE MANAGEMENT
ORDER AND REFERENCE
TO MAGISTRATE JUDGE
FOR MEDIATION/
SETTLEMENT

After a case management conference, the Court enters the following order pursuant to Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure ("FRCP") and Civil Local Rule 16-10:

1. All initial disclosures under FRCP 26 must be completed by NOVEMBER 30, 2015, on pain of preclusion under FRCP 37(c), including full and faithful compliance with FRCP 26(a)(1)(A)(iii).
2. The motion for class certification must be filed by FEBRUARY 25, 2016, to be heard on a normal 35-day track.
3. Leave to add any new parties or pleading amendments must be sought by FEBRUARY 29, 2016.
4. The non-expert discovery cut-off date shall be JULY 29, 2016.
5. The last date for designation of expert testimony and disclosure of full expert reports under FRCP 26(a)(2) as to any issue on which a party has the burden of proof

(“opening reports”) shall be JULY 29, 2016. Within FOURTEEN CALENDAR DAYS of said deadline, all other parties must disclose any expert reports on the same issue (“opposition reports”). Within SEVEN CALENDAR DAYS thereafter, the party with the burden of proof must disclose any reply reports rebutting specific material in opposition reports. Reply reports must be limited to true rebuttal and should be very brief. They should not add new material that should have been placed in the opening report and the reply material will ordinarily be reserved for the rebuttal or sur-rebuttal phase of the trial. If the party with the burden of proof neglects to make a timely disclosure, the other side, if it wishes to put in expert evidence on the same issue anyway, must disclose its expert report within the fourteen-day period. In that event, the party with the burden of proof on the issue may then file a reply expert report within the seven-day period, subject to possible exclusion for “sandbagging” and, at all events, any such reply material may be presented at trial only after, if at all, the other side actually presents expert testimony to which the reply is responsive. The cutoff for all expert discovery shall be FOURTEEN CALENDAR DAYS after the deadline for reply reports. In aid of preparing an opposition or reply report, a responding party may depose the adverse expert sufficiently before the deadline for the opposition or reply report so as to use the testimony in preparing the response. Experts must make themselves readily available for such depositions. Alternatively, the responding party can elect to depose the expert later in the expert-discovery period. An expert, however, may be deposed only once unless the expert is used for different opening and/or opposition reports, in which case the expert may be deposed independently on the subject matter of each report. At least 28 CALENDAR DAYS before the due date for opening reports, each party shall serve a list of issues on which it will offer any expert testimony in its case-in-chief (including from non-retained experts). This is so that all parties will be timely able to obtain counter-experts on the listed issues and to facilitate the timely completeness of all expert reports. Failure to so disclose may result in preclusion.

- 1 6. As to damages studies, the cut-off date for past damages will be as of the expert report
2 (or such earlier date as the expert may select). In addition, the experts may try to project
3 future damages (i.e., after the cut-off date) if the substantive standards for future
4 damages can be met. With timely leave of Court or by written stipulation, the experts
5 may update their reports (with supplemental reports) to a date closer to the time of trial.
- 6 7. At trial, the direct testimony of experts will be limited to the matters disclosed in their 7 reports. Omitted material may not ordinarily be added on direct examination.
8 This means the reports must be complete and sufficiently detailed.
9 Illustrative animations, diagrams, charts and models may be used on direct examination
10 only if they were part of the expert's report, with the exception of simple drawings and 11 tabulations that plainly illustrate what is already in the report, which can be drawn by 12 the witness at trial or otherwise shown to the jury. If cross-examination fairly opens the 13 door, however, an expert may go beyond the written report on cross-examination and/or 14 redirect examination. By written stipulation, of course, all sides may relax these 15 requirements. For trial, an expert must learn and testify to the full amount of billing and 16 unbilled time by him or his firm on the engagement.
- 17 8. To head off a recurring problem, experts lacking percipient knowledge should avoid 18 vouching for the credibility of witnesses, i.e., whose version of the facts in dispute is 19 correct. This means that they may not, for example, testify that based upon a review of 20 fact depositions and other material supplied by counsel, a police officer did (or did not)
21 violate standards. Rather, the expert should be asked for his or her opinion based —
22 explicitly — upon an assumed fact scenario. This will make clear that the witness is not 23 attempting to make credibility and fact findings and thereby to invade the province of 24 the jury. Of course, a qualified expert can testify to relevant customs, usages, practices,
25 recognized standards of conduct, and other specialized matters beyond the ken of a lay
26 jury. This subject is addressed further in the trial guidelines referenced in paragraph 16
27 below.
28

9. Counsel need not request a motion hearing date and may notice non-discovery motions for any Thursday (excepting holidays) at 8:00 a.m. The Court sometimes rules on the papers, issuing a written order and vacating the hearing. If a written request for oral argument is filed before a ruling, stating that a lawyer of four or fewer years out of law school will conduct the oral argument or at least the lion's share, then the Court will hear oral argument, believing that young lawyers need more opportunities for appearances than they usually receive. Discovery motions should be as per the supplemental order referenced in paragraph 16 and shall be expedited.
10. The last date to file dispositive motions shall be SEPTEMBER 1, 2016. No dispositive motions shall be heard more than 35 days after this deadline, i.e., if any party waits until the last day to file, then the parties must adhere to the 35-day track in order to avoid pressure on the trial date.
11. The FINAL PRETRIAL CONFERENCE shall be at 2:00 P.M. on NOVEMBER 2, 2016. Although the Court encourages argument and participation by younger attorneys, lead trial counsel must attend the final pretrial conference. For the form of submissions for the final pretrial conference and trial, please see paragraph 16 below.
12. A JURY TRIAL shall begin on NOVEMBER 14, 2016, at 7:30 A.M., in Courtroom 8, 19th Floor, 450 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, 94102. The trial schedule and time limits shall be set at the final pretrial conference. Although almost all trials proceed on the date scheduled, it may be necessary on occasion for a case to trail, meaning the trial may commence a few days or even a few weeks after the date stated above, due to calendar congestion and the need to give priority to criminal trials. Counsel and the parties should plan accordingly, including advising witnesses.
13. Counsel may not stipulate around the foregoing dates without Court approval.
14. While the Court encourages the parties to engage in settlement discussions, please do not ask for any extensions on the ground of settlement discussions or on the ground that the parties experienced delays in scheduling settlement conferences, mediation or ENE. The parties should proceed to prepare their cases for trial. No continuance (even if

1 stipulated) shall be granted on the ground of incomplete preparation without competent
2 and detailed declarations setting forth good cause.

3 15. To avoid any misunderstanding with respect to the final pretrial conference and trial, the 4 Court wishes to emphasize that all filings and appearances must be made — on pain of 5 dismissal, default or other sanction — unless and until a dismissal fully resolving the
6 case is received. It will not be enough to inform the clerk that a settlement in principle
7 has been reached or to lodge a partially executed settlement agreement or to lodge a
8 fully executed agreement (or dismissal) that resolves less than the entire case.

9 Where, however, a fully-executed settlement agreement clearly and fully disposing of 10 the entire case is lodged reasonably in advance of the pretrial conference or trial and
11 only a ministerial act remains, the Court will arrange a telephone conference to work out
12 an alternate procedure pending a formal dismissal.

13 16. If you have not already done so, please read and follow the “Supplemental Order to 14 Order Setting Initial Case Management Conference in Civil Cases Before Judge William
15 Alsup” and other orders issued by the Clerk’s office when this action was commenced.
16 Among other things, the supplemental order explains when submissions are to go to the 17 Clerk’s Office (the general rule) versus when submissions may go directly to chambers
18 (rarely). With respect to the final pretrial conference and trial, please read and follow
19 the “Guidelines For Trial and Final Pretrial Conference in Civil Jury Cases Before The 20 Honorable William Alsup.” All orders and guidelines referenced in the paragraph are 21 available on the district court’s website at <http://www.cand.uscourts.gov>. The website
22 also includes other guidelines for attorney’s fees motions and the necessary form of 23 attorney time records for cases before Judge Alsup. If you do not have access to the 24 Internet, you may contact Deputy Clerk Dawn K. Toland at (415) 522-2020 to learn how 25 to pick up a hard copy.

26 17. All pretrial disclosures under FRCP 26(a)(3) and objections required by FRCP 26(a)(3)
27 must be made on the schedule established by said rule.

1 18. This matter is hereby REFERRED to MAGISTRATE JUDGE JOSEPH C. SPERO for
2 MEDIATION/SETTLEMENT.
